At the September 3, 2003 Historic Landmarks Commission meeting, Maria Brandt, a member of the public, spoke during the Petitions and Communications section of the Commission meeting to request that staff place the discussion regarding a proposed plaque recognizing Adolph Pfister as the founder of the First Republic Library on a future agenda. Commission Chair Sciara confirmed the Commission's interest in material provided by Ms. Brandt. Ms. Brandt stated that she would provide information on Pfister to Planning staff for inclusion in the Commission packet.

No information was provided in time for the October 1, 2003 Commission packet.
